

Advertisement for the post Community Health Worker -TANDA Field Action Project

Project Brief:

TANDA is a field action project of Tata Institute of Social Sciences, Mumbai, school of social work, centre for criminology and justice. TANDA is aimed towards mainstreaming De-Notified and Nomadic Tribe communities by conducting activities regarding education, health, livelihood, women empowerment.

Post: Community Health Worker

No. of Post: 01

Location: Navi Mumbai

Duration: 1 year

Qualification	Any graduate preferably from the social science background or 12 th passed with relevant experience in the field of maternal child health, women empowerment.
Experience	Fresher or having minimum 1 year of experience in the field of women and child health, women empowerment, DNT communities.
Desirable	Willing to join immediately, relevant experience in the field offield of women and child health, women empowerment, DNT communities. People from De-Notified and Nomadic Tribe communities will be preferred. fluent in Marathi and Hindi.
Roles and Responsibilities	Community Health Worker would be responsible towards providing women and child health services (Ante Natal, Post Natal), monitoring of children under the age 6 years, reproductive and menstrual hygiene, providing orientation to youths regarding vocational training, establishing quilt manufacturing business for women, data collection and report writing, maintaining MIS under the guidance of project director.
Duration 12 months	June 2023 to June 2024
Remuneration	Rs. 10500/- per month

When to apply:

The applications with updated C.V. can be sent to email mentioned below on or before 10 days from the date of publication of the advertisement

How to apply: Interested people can send their CV/Bio-data to Dr. Yogendra Ghorpade at dryogi3@gmail.com

Note: Only shortlisted candidates will be notified for interview. No travelling expenses would be provided.