Vacancy for the 01 position of Woman Social Worker at pilot Special Cell for Women, Leh, UT of Ladakh established with/in Ladakh Police, by Tata Institute of Social Sciences, Mumbai, with support of National Commission for Women (Government of India)

National Commission for Women (NCW), Government of India has undertaken collaborative work with Tata Institute of Social Sciences (Mumbai) in collaboration with Home (Police) & Social and Tribal Welfare department of UT of Ladakh for demonstration of pilot units of Special Cell for Women under 'Violence Free Home – A Woman's Right' project. This is based on Special Cell for Women and Children approach.

The Special Cells for Women & Children approach – as initiated by Tata Institute of Social Sciences (TISS), Mumbai in 1984, creates space in the Police system for violated women to receive support through quality psycho-social- legal services provided by professional full-time social workers, within the criminal justice system, with a clear understanding that violence against women is a crime and it is the responsibility of the State to prevent and counter the same. The Resource Centre for Interventions on Violence Against Women (RCI-VAW), School of Social Work (TISS, Mumbai), has collaborated with NCW, GoI and Administration of UT of Ladakh for the demonstration of 02 pilot Special Cell for Women in UT of Ladakh. Each Special Cell for Women has two social workers, at least one being a woman, to respond to violated women accessing support.

A total of 01 position of woman Social Worker is required for full-time work at pilot Special Cells for Women, Leh district of UT of Ladakh. TISS hereby issues this advertisement for the 01 position of woman social worker, as authorised by NCW, GoI for the selection of suitable candidates for the same.
