

Full time position – Research Associate

Tata Institute of Social Sciences invites applications for a six month research study titled “Evaluation Study of Community Action for Nutrition Project implemented by SATHI.” The broad aim of the research is to do the impact assessment of processes followed during the CAN project implemented by SATHI and the perception among different stakeholders about the intervention and the impact of the interventions. It will help assess the overall impact on the nutritional status of tribal children in the selected areas

Duration of the Study: 6 months

Starting Date: May 1st week

Last date for application: 10th April 23.

Job Location: Mumbai (Includes intense travelling)

No of positions: 1

Qualification:

Minimum Requirement

- Postgraduate degree Master’s in Public Health, MA Social Work, Social Sciences with adequate experience in the field of public health.
- Candidate needs to have prior research experience. Preference will be given to persons perusing or with Ph D in Public Health
- Candidate should have proficiency in Marathi, English and Hindi.
- The candidate should have necessary research skills of coordinating a team, qualitative data collection, transcription, data entry and qualitative and quantitative data analysis, documentation and report writing.

Job responsibilities:

The Research Associate will interview the stakeholders and beneficiaries of the CAN project and hence needs to be comfortable with social interaction and being able to write/record while taking interviews. They should be ready for intense travelling during the project period.

The primary tasks of the research associate will be as follows,

Research related.

- Data collection
- Transcription of interview data
- Data entry
- Data analysis
- Help in report writing and dissemination of research findings
- Other work assigned by the project leader.

Project Administration related

- Co-ordinate with the field team and project team in Mumbai
- Maintaining vouchers of expenses on the project
- Corresponding with and following up with the accounts and personnel departments at TISS, Mumbai on project reimbursements

The research associate will be required to travel to Vidarbha (Gadchiroli), North Maharashtra (Nashik and Nadurbar), Konkan - 1 (Palghar and Thane) and Konkan-2 (Raigad and Pune).

Salary:

The candidate will be paid a consolidated salary up to Rs. 55,000/- per month, depend on the experience, qualification and relevant publications.

Fieldwork expenses related to travel will be reimbursed according to TISS norms.

Kindly send your CV via email to the Principal Investigator on the following email id-canprojecttrti@gmail.com

Principal Investigator: Dr Narendra Kakade

Only shortlisted candidates will be informed about the interview.