Vacancy for position of 1 Coordinator for Special Cell for Women, Assam state established with/in Assam Police, by Tata Institute of Social Sciences, Mumbai, with support from JHPIEGO

Tata Institute of Social Sciences & Government of Assam with support from JHPIEGO, India have reached an understanding to work together to expand the Special Cells for Women approach in 10 additional districts of Assam, along with sustaining the existing Cell in Guwahati, and to simultaneously, a) work on the intersections of public awareness and community engagement with SHRH with GBV, as well as b) advocate and secure the State Government takeover of said integrated approach as a regular administrative measure. One Special Cell for Women has been functional at Pan Bazaar Police Station, Kamrup Metro since June-July 2016 under the Violence Free Home – A Woman's Right project, a collaboration between National Commission for Women, GoI and TISS.

The Special Cells for Women & Children approach – as initiated by the Institute in 1984, creates space in the Police system for violated women to receive support through quality psycho-social- legal services provided by professional full-time social workers, within the criminal justice system, with a clear understanding that violence against women is a crime and it is the responsibility of the State to prevent and counter the same.

A total of 1 Coordinator are required for full-time work to coordinate the work across 11 Special Cells for Women which will be located in 11 districts of Assam, viz., Kamrup Metro, Kamrup rural, Cachar, Sonitpur, Dibrugarh, Nagaon, Barpeta, Dhubri, Sivsagar, Kokrajhar, Karbi Anglong.
